Lettrz from the Prez

Hey! Where has the year gone? It seems that I looked away, got busy with a few details, then turned around, and now its already time for our Christmas party.

Alright, Christmas Party! It's a big event in our club's year. Lots of good food, good beer, and good friends to share it. As usual, the club provides the meat and everyone brings a dish of some sort. Salads, vegetables, desserts, whatever you choose to bring will be appreciated.

The beer this year will be all homebrew, and there will be plenty to choose from. There's a fifty-dollar prize for the most popular keg, and some of our club's finest brewers will be in contention. No stinking style guidelines, just tell us which beer you like the best.

We'll have our special raffle drawing for the big mohunker prize, a chest freezer. Don't bother trying to buy tickets for this one, you either did it earlier or you didn't. Remember those loosing raffle tickets that you bought throughout the year? Remember writing your name on the back and turning them

Annual Holiday Beer Tasting at Ginger Man

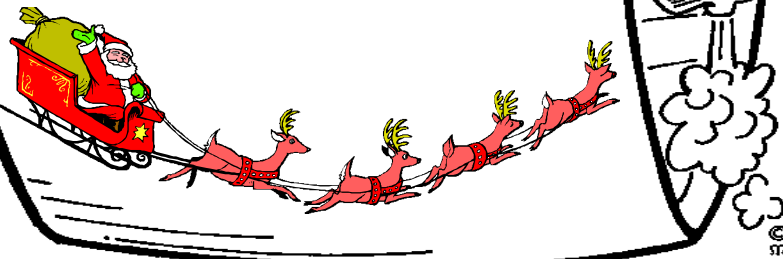

It has become a tradition at the Ginger Man to present a holiday tasting event that always proves to be enjoyable. Our very own McKee Smith will be leading the participants through a variety of winter warmers and seasonal brews.

The tasting will be Tuesday night, December 12th. It starts at 8:00 PM but you should arrive early because it has been known to sell out. The price for this event has not been set at the time of this writing but should be $15 or $20.

Congratulations to all the winners in the 2000 Brewer Royale competitions. We had a lot of good beers.

January brings us a "clean slate" for 2001 so let's get ready to brew! I have posted the month and style for each of next year's competitions on this page so everyone can plan next year's entries.

WE WIN!!!!

Just in case you haven't heard, the North Texas Homebrewers went down to Houston and walked away with the Dixie Cup. It was a huge event (as always) and a huge win for our club. Those of us who went down there had a great time (as always) and the Foam Rangers went out of their way to make all the visiting clubs feel welcome. Our club had a nice effort with lots of entries and plenty of ribbons to go around. It also was a good indication of just what we can accomplish if we pull together and go after a trophy. The big question is, can we build on this victory and carry it into next year's Gulf Coast contests?

Speaking for myself, it was the best Dixie Cup I've been to. It was great to see Al Bourg and Ernie Spreen from the New Orleans club win the Mike Templeton award for most points at the Dixie Cup. They have been competing with me all year for the Gulf Coast Title and are great competitors (and really good guys).

Congratulations to "Bert & Ernie." And speaking of the Gulf Coast Title, hats off and my personal congratulations go to Wes & Nancy Sampson from Florida for a resounding victory in this year's Gulf Coast Homebrewer of the Year race. Although I did not win the title this year I take great pride in beating Dave Dixon from the Net Hoppers.

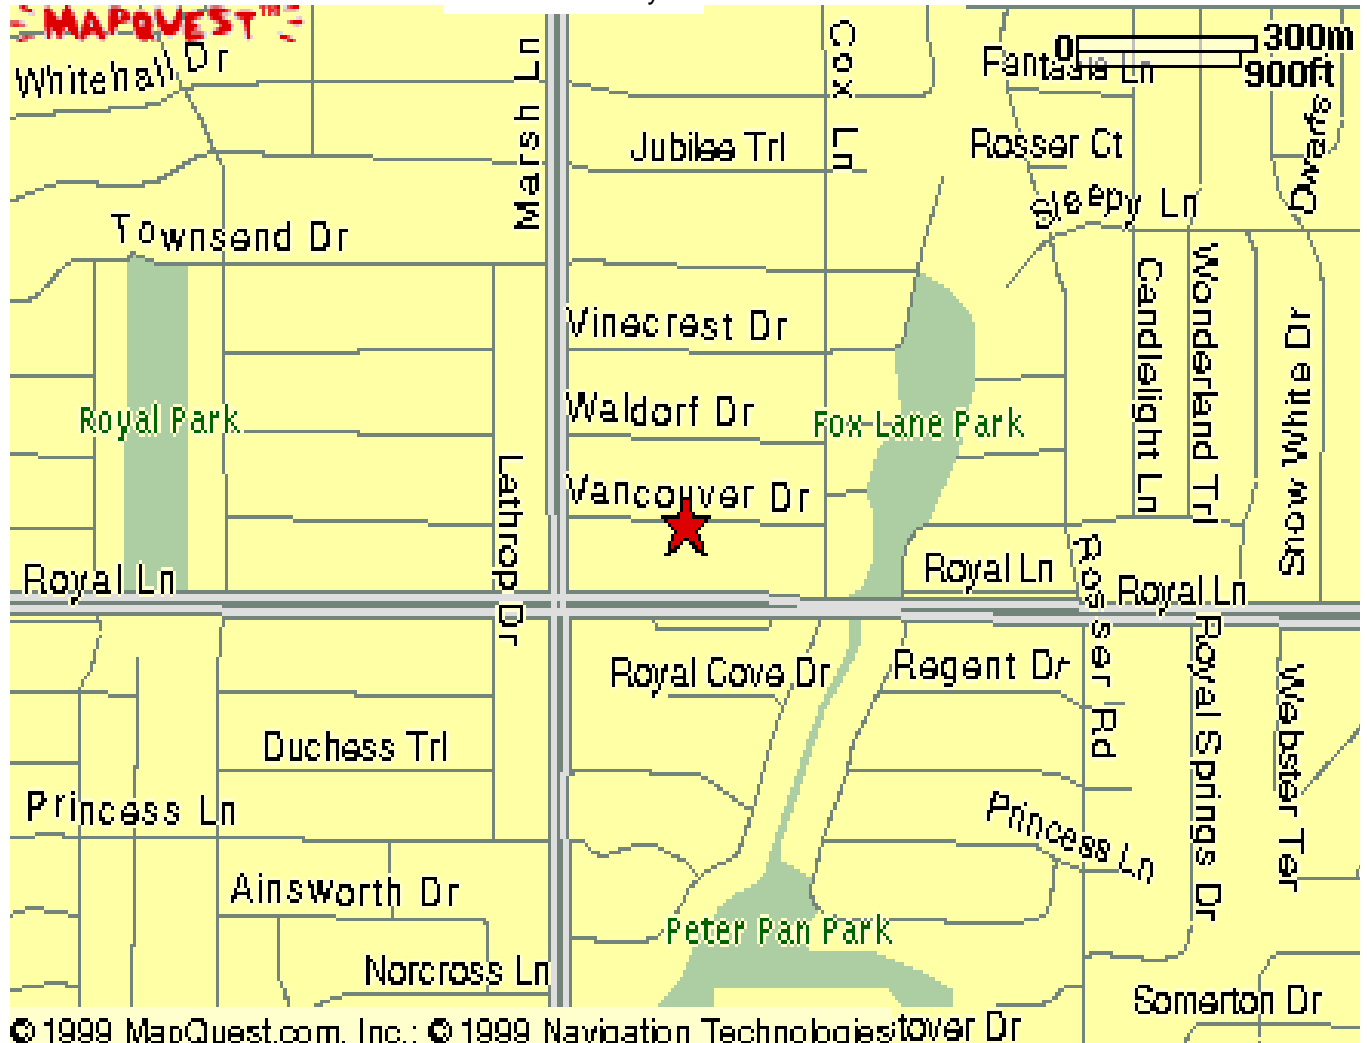

NOW is the time to be brewing for the spring competitions. All those who have signed up for the Sunshine Challenge Posse, all I can say is it's in our hands. Fire up those kettles and let's continue the winning streak in Y2K1!

in? We'll draw from those tickets. There is a precedent for the outgoing president to win this drawing, so I'll be driving my pickup to the party. Just in case.

This year's Brewer Royale competition was a real nail biter. Six brewers were in contention for first place going in to the last event, and the finish was exciting. I'll present the prizes to the winners and pass the highly sought after Brewer Royale trophy to our club's Brewer(s) Royale for 2001.

In addition to the festivities, we'll announce the results of the election for club officers. The lucky (?) winners will then retire to a conference room where they decide who's going to do what. Regardless of the outcome of this election, I want to thank all of those club members who agreed to have their names on the ballot. It takes individuals like these to make this club go, and I for one really appreciate their willingness to give something back to our club.

Let me remind you once more of our effort to help charities in north Texas. Please bring a donation of some sort to the party. Warm clothing, toiletries, and non-perishable food items are recommended. My wife, Pat, will be collecting the donations.

This party will complete our club's calendar for 2000 and marks the end of my term as president. It has been an honor to serve you and I've had a grand time doing it. Thanks, folks, for a wonderful year.

Carpe Brewski,
Jim Layton

have a keg of Young's Winter Warmer for you to enjoy too.

- The swimming pool will be hot so if you would like to take a late afternoon dip, bring your swimwear.
- Dinner will begin about 6:00 PM
- After dinner (about 7:00 PM) The drawing for the "Big-Mohunker" prize will take place. Remember, you must be present to win. Jim Layton will announce the new members of our Board of Directors and we should find out if Jim had any luck during his deer hunt this past week.
- About 7:30 PM we will begin our 2nd Annual White Elephant gift exchange (or battle if you prefer). You must bring a wrapped beer/brewing related item to participate. If you don't bring an item, you can still watch the fun as everyone tries to keep their favorite gift. Don't forget to continue sampling the different Holiday Brew entries.
- At 8:30 PM, the ballots will be collected to allow time for determining the winner.

What to bring:

"Covered dish" - veggie, desert or your special holiday dish

Christmas Charity donation - Can goods, unwrapped toy or winter clothing

White Elephant Gift - some wacky/funny beer-related item (a beer T-shirt, some odd brew equipment, etc...) You name it, just make it beer related. Be sure you wrap your "gift".

The club buys the meat and the members bring the side dishes. We are dependent on everyone to bring a side dish to make this thing work out right, so please do.

Rules for White Elephant Gift Exchange

It's simple and fun. Just bring a wrapped beer-related item (see above). The funnier the better! Humor is what makes this thing, not expense or even usefulness.

1. We'll draw numbers then start the "white elephant"
2. We'll go in order and once your number is called you have a 30 seconds (we WILL time it to keep things moving). When your time is up, you have the choice of taking an unopened gift or a gift that someone before you already has.

Note: A gift can only be "stolen" twice.

That's it -
